

Fireworks Essay Citations

In-Text Citations

When you are using any information within a paragraph that you got from another source, you need to include an in-text citation. These are the in-text citations you need to use for the required sources:

| Source | In-Text Citation |
|--|--|
| Fireworks! article by Kathy De Antonis | (De Antonis, page ____) |
| Workbook 3.1 | (Unit 3, Workbook 1, page ____) |
| Technicolor Atoms Lab | (Technicolor Atoms, Workbook 3.1, page ____) |
| The Chemistry of Fireworks YouTube video | (The Chemistry of Fireworks) |
| The Deadly Irony of Gunpowder YouTube video | (The Deadly Irony of Gunpowder) |

Works Cited Page

You must also include a Works Cited Page. These citations are written a bit differently. These are the works cited citations for the required sources:

| Source | Works Cited Page Citation |
|--|--|
| Fireworks! article by Kathy De Antonis | De Antonis, Kathy. "Fireworks!" ChemMatters Oct. 2010: 8-10. |
| Workbook 3.1 | Unit 3, Workbook 1. Print. 2017. |
| Technicolor Atoms Lab | Technicolor Atoms. Unit 3, Workbook 1. Print. 2017. |
| The Chemistry of Fireworks YouTube video | The Chemistry of Fireworks . Perf. John A. Conkling. YouTube . Reactions, 30 June 2014. Web. 12 Oct. 2016. |
| The Deadly Irony of Gunpowder YouTube video | The Deadly Irony of Gunpowder . Perf. Eric Rosado. YouTube . TED-Ed, 4 Nov. 2013. Web. 12 Oct. 2016. |